

Luxury Hawaii Transportation and Luxury Hawaii Tours arrive in The Aloha State

Christian McInerney, seasoned industry veteran and longtime Hawaii resident, has partnered with Urban Worldwide CEO Dave Uziel to bring first class luxury transportation services to Hawaii.

February 1, 2022 | Honolulu, HI — With the introduction of Luxury Hawaii Transportation and Luxury Hawaii Tours, industry vets Christian McInerney and Dave Uziel have joined forces in a new venture on the shores of The Aloha State. In a partnership that speaks to their united strengths, McInerney and Uziel are bringing luxury transportation to a market they believe has room for an elevated standard of service, while also embracing the energy and lifestyle that makes Hawaii uniquely desirable as a destination for travelers and residents alike. McInerney will serve as President of both branches, which will initially provide luxury black car services and private tours on Oahu, as well as private tours on Kauai. Meanwhile, longtime Urban Worldwide Affiliate Manager Corey Witzel will transition to fill the same role with the Luxury Hawaii Transportation brand, rounding out the small but highly-experienced team ushering this endeavor into reality.

“Our business strategies and the potential we see for the Hawaii market are so closely aligned, the partnership seemed like an obvious yes,” says McInerney. “I’m thrilled to have Dave bringing in some of the Urban Worldwide culture and operational expertise as we continue to build our presence within Hawaii.”

Luxury Hawaii Transportation and Luxury Hawaii Tours are currently operating a full suite of services in Hawaii, with plans for further expansion later this year.
